

Notice of 2021 AGM & Election for NTC President & Vice President

The Nuu-chah-nulth Tribal Council (NTC) Annual General Meeting is scheduled to be held on September 23, 2021. Due to the uncertainties of the pandemic, the current plan is for the meeting to be held virtually. However, if the Provincial Health regulations change with adequate time to prepare for an in-person meeting, the format is subject to change.

The current terms for the President and Vice President, expire on the 2021 AGM date. Therefore, notice is hereby given that the Election for both the President and Vice President positions will occur at the AGM, on September 23, 2021.

The 4-year term for each position will commence immediately upon announcement of the election results and end at the NTC AGM in September 2025.

The Application Package which includes the President/Vice President Terms of Reference, Application Form (which includes the Nomination Section), will be available at the NTC Reception Desk. Completed applications can be delivered to NTC, Attn: Florence Wylie, Executive Director, florence.wylie@nuuchahnulth.org or you can locate the Application Package on the NTC website at: <http://www.nuuchahnulth.org>

Deadline for applications: August 13, 2021 at 12 noon
