PART 4 – GENERAL MEETINGS

- 4.1 Subject to any extensions of time permitted under the Societies Act, an annual general meeting of the Society shall be held once in every calendar year at such time (not more than 15 months after the date that the last annual general meeting was held) and place that the Directors in their discretion may decide.
- 4.2 Every general meeting, other than an annual general meeting, is an extraordinary general meeting.
- 4.3 In these Bylaws, a “general meeting” shall refer to a duly convened meeting of all of the Members of the Society for the transaction of corporate business, and shall exclude informal gatherings of Members as well as meetings of the Members of the ARFA Group, the Treaty Group and the Independent Group as contemplated in Part 7 of these Bylaws.
- 4.4 The Directors may, whenever they think fit, convene an extraordinary general meeting. A general meeting, if requisitioned in accordance with the Societies Act, shall be convened by the Directors or, if not convened by the Directors, may be convened by the requisitionists as provided in the Societies Act.
- 4.5 Not less than 14 days’ notice of a general meeting shall be given in writing to each Member. A notice convening a general meeting, specifying the place, date and hour of the general meeting and, in the case of special business, the general nature of that business, shall be given as provided in the Societies Act and in the manner provided in these Bylaws to such persons as are entitled by law or pursuant to these Bylaws to receive such notice from the Society. Accidental omission to give notice of a general meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a general meeting by, any particular Member shall not invalidate the proceedings at that general meeting.
- 4.6 Except as otherwise provided by the Societies Act, where any special business at a general meeting includes considering, approving, ratifying, adopting or authorizing any document or the execution of any such document or the giving of effect to any such document, the notice convening the general meeting shall, with respect to such document, be sufficient if it states that a copy of the document or proposed document is or shall be available for inspection by Members at the registered office or records office of the Society or at some other place in British Columbia designated in the notice during usual business hours up to the date of such general meeting.

PART 5 – PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 5.1 All business shall be deemed special business which is transacted at:
- a) an annual general meeting, with the exception of the conduct of and voting at such annual general meeting, consideration of the financial statements and the respective reports of the Directors and the auditor, the appointment of the auditor, and such other business as by these Bylaws or the Societies Act may be transacted at a general meeting without prior notice thereof being given to the Members or any business which is brought under consideration by the report of the Directors; and
 - b) any other general meeting, with the exception of the conduct of and voting at such general meeting.
- 5.2 No business, other than the adjournment or termination of the general meeting and setting a date to reconvene, shall be conducted at any general meeting unless the required quorum of Members is present at the start of the general meeting. A quorum need not be present throughout the general meeting.
- 5.3 Except as provided by the Societies Act and these Bylaws, a quorum for a general meeting shall be the lesser of:
- a) 50% of all eligible Members; or
 - b) more than 50% of the eligible Members representing eight or more of the Nuu-chah-nulth First Nations.
- 5.4 The President or in his or her absence, or if there is no President, the Vice-President or in his or her absence, or if there is no Vice-President, a Director of the Society shall be entitled to preside as chair at every general meeting of the Society.
- 5.5 The chair of a general meeting may, with the consent of the general meeting if a quorum is present, and shall, if so directed by the general meeting, adjourn the general meeting from time to time and from place to place. When a general meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned general meeting shall be given as in the case of the original general meeting. Save as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjourned general meeting or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned general meeting.
- 5.6 Any Member, or the Council of the Nuu-chah-nulth First Nation which appointed such Member, may appoint any person as the proxy of such Member, in accordance with the provisions of the Societies Act and these Bylaws, to attend on behalf of such Member at a general meeting and any adjournment of that general meeting and to speak, act, vote and in all other respects exercise all the rights of the Member on behalf of that Member to the same extent as if that Member was present at that general meeting. A proxy shall be in writing, shall be deposited with the Executive Director or chair of the general meeting, at any time prior to or during the general meeting at which the person named in the proxy proposes to vote, and shall be in a form acceptable to the chair of the general meeting. Any person may act as a proxyholder whether or not that person is entitled on his or her own behalf to be present and to vote at the general meeting at which that person intends to act as proxyholder. A person may act as the proxyholder of more than one Member at a general meeting.

- 5.7 Every proxy may be revoked by a Member, or the Council of the Nuu-chah-nulth First Nation which appointed such Member, by an instrument in writing delivered either at the office of the Society with the Executive Director at any time up to and including the last business day preceding the day of the general meeting or adjourned general meeting for which the proxy is given, or to the chair of the general meeting at any time prior to or during the general meeting, or in any other manner provided by law.

PART 6 – VOTES OF MEMBERS

- 6.1 At every general meeting every Member, if in good standing under these Bylaws, shall be entitled to one vote which may be cast by him or her, or his or her proxyholder who is present in person at that general meeting.
- 6.2 Subject to the provisions of the Societies Act, every motion or question submitted to a general meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) a poll is directed by the chair or demanded by one or more Members entitled to vote who are present in person or by proxy. The chair shall declare to the general meeting the decision on every motion or question in accordance with the result of the show of hands or the poll, and such decision shall be entered in the record of proceedings of the Society. A declaration by the chair that a motion or question has been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the record of the proceedings of the Society shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against that motion or question.
- 6.3 Unless the Societies Act or these Bylaws otherwise provide, any action to be taken by a resolution of the Members may be taken by an ordinary resolution.

PART 7 – GROUPS OF FIRST NATIONS

- 7.1 The Members and Directors appointed by all Nuu-chah-nulth First Nations may vote on all matters and issues which are the collective responsibility of all of the Nuu-chah-nulth First Nations.
- 7.2 For the limited purposes described in this Part 7, the Nuu-chah-nulth First Nations shall be divided into three groups, as follows:

- c) the Independent Group, consisting of Ahousaht (or such other Nuu-chah-nulth First Nations as may become members of the Independent Group).

7.3 The ARFA Group, and their appointed Members and Directors, have responsibility and the exclusive right to make decisions in respect of the following:

- b) management of programs relating to the exclusive ARFA issues outlined in paragraph a) above.

7.4 Where a Nuu-chah-nulth First Nation which is in the Treaty Group or the Independent Group elects to buy back a particular service from the Society which would otherwise be within the exclusive authority of the ARFA Group as described in Bylaw 7.3 a) above, the Members and Directors of the electing Nuu-chah-nulth First Nation shall be entitled to attend meetings of the Members and Directors of the ARFA Group at which the delivery of the relevant service is to be discussed and to vote on any decisions affecting the delivery of the relevant service by the Society.

7.5 The Members and Directors appointed by a Nuu-chah-nulth First Nation in the ARFA Group may vote on those issues which are within the areas of responsibility of the ARFA Group Nuu-chah-nulth First Nations under Bylaws 7.3 and 7.4.

PART 8 – BOARD OF DIRECTORS

8.1 The Directors shall be appointed in accordance with this Part 8. Subject to these Bylaws, the number of Directors shall from time to time be equal to the number of Nuu-chah-nulth First Nations. Notwithstanding the foregoing sentence, the fact that there are at any time fewer than such number of Directors shall not derogate from the authority, powers and duties of the Directors to manage the affairs and business of the Society as described in Bylaw 9.1, and no act or proceeding of the Directors is invalid only by reason of there being less than the prescribed number of Directors in office.

8.2 Each Nuu-chah-nulth First Nation shall appoint one person as a Director of the Society, such appointee to be a Hawilth, the Chief Councillor, or a member of the Council, of the particular Nuu-chah-nulth First Nation. Each Director must consent in writing to act as a Director of the Society.

8.3 At the same time as it appoints a Director as described in Bylaw 8.2, each Nuu-chah-nulth First Nation shall appoint a second person as an alternate Director of the Society, such person to be a Hawilth, the Chief Councillor, or a member of the Council, of the particular Nuu-chah-nulth First Nation.

- 8.4 The Nuu-chah-nulth First Nations shall provide the Executive Director with written notice of the appointments described in Bylaws 8.2 and 8.3. Notice of such appointments shall be provided according to the governance process of the appointing Nuu-chah-nulth First Nation. The appointments shall become effective upon receipt of such notice by the Executive Director. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a Nuu-chah-nulth First Nation fails to give notice of its appointments pursuant to this Bylaw 8.4, the Chief Councillor of such Nuu-chah-nulth First Nation shall be deemed to have been appointed as its Director of the Society until such time as it provides such notice of its appointments.
- 8.5 If neither a Director nor an alternate Directors appointed by a Nuu-chah-nulth First Nation is available to attend a particular meeting of the Directors, such Director or alternate Director may appoint a temporary alternate Director. Such temporary alternate Director need not be a Hawilth, the Chief Councillor, or a member of the Council, of the particular Nuu-chah-nulth First Nation which appointed the Director or alternate Director. Notice of such appointment of a temporary alternate Director shall be given to the Executive Director at or prior to the applicable meeting of the Directors.
- 8.6 Except as described below, the person appointed as a temporary alternate Director pursuant to Bylaw 8.5 shall not be entitled to receive notice of or to attend meetings of the Board. He or she may represent the Director and alternate Director appointed pursuant to Bylaws 8.2 and 8.3 as his or her alternate in his or her absence, but only at and for the limited purpose of attendance at and participation in a particular meeting of the Board.
- 8.7 The term of office for each Director and alternate Director shall coincide with the term of their government or Council with the applicable Nuu-chah-nulth First Nation.
- 8.8 The Council of a Nuu-chah-nulth First Nation may, from time to time, remove and replace a person it has appointed as a Director or alternate Director of the Society. Where a Nuu-chah-nulth First Nation removes and replaces its appointee as a Director or alternate Director of the Society, that Nuu-chah-nulth First Nation shall provide the Executive Director with written notice of such removal and replacement. Notice of such appointments shall be provided according to the governance process of the appointing Nuu-chah-nulth First Nation. The removal and replacement shall become effective upon receipt of such notice by the Executive Director.
- 8.9 The office of a person as a Director or alternate Director shall be vacated:
- a) upon his or her removal by the Council of his or her appointing Nuu-chah-nulth First Nation pursuant to Bylaw 8.8;
 - b) if the Director or alternate Director resigns his or her office by notice in writing delivered to the registered office of the Society;
 - c) upon the death of the Director or alternate Director;

- d) on the 10th day after the person ceases to be a Hawilth, Chief Councillor or member of the Council of the Nuu-chah-nulth First Nation which appointed him or her as a Director or alternate Director; or
- e) on the 10th day after the Nuu-chah-nulth First Nation which appointed such person as a Director or alternate Director of the Society ceases participation in the affairs of the Society in accordance with Bylaw 3.4.

8.10 The Directors as such shall serve without remuneration.

PART 9 – POWERS AND DUTIES OF DIRECTORS

- 9.1 The Directors shall manage, or supervise the management of, the affairs and business of the Society and shall have authority to exercise all such powers of the Society as are not, by the Societies Act, the Constitution of the Society or these Bylaws, required to be exercised by the Society in general meeting.
- 9.2 Subject to the Societies Act, the Board may from time to time cause the Society to borrow money in such a manner and amount, on such security, from such sources and upon such terms and conditions as it thinks fit.

PART 10 – PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

- 10.1 The President or, in his or her absence, the Vice-President or, in his or her absence, a Director shall preside as the chair at every meeting of the Directors.
- 10.2 The Directors may meet together for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit. Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. If the chair is a Director, in case of an equality of votes he or she shall not have a second or casting vote.
- 10.3 A Director may participate in a meeting of the Board or of any committee of Directors by means of telephone or other communications facility by means of which all Directors participating in the meeting can hear each other. A meeting so held in accordance with this Bylaw shall be deemed to be an actual meeting of the Board and any resolution passed at such a meeting shall be valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting where the Directors are physically present. A Director participating in a meeting in accordance with this Bylaw shall be deemed to be present at the meeting and shall be counted in the quorum therefor and be entitled to speak and vote at the meeting.
- 10.4 Any three Directors or any one of the President, Vice-President or Executive Director may at any time call a meeting of the Board, to be convened in addition to any regularly scheduled meeting.
- 10.5 Notice of a meeting of the Board shall be given to each Director at least three days before the time fixed for the meeting and may be given orally, personally or by telephone, or in writing, personally or by delivery through the post or by letter, telecopier, electronic mail, text message or any other method of transmitting legibly recorded messages in common use.

When written notice of a meeting is given to a Director through the post or by letter, it shall be addressed to him or her at the business office of the Nuu-chah-nulth First Nation which appointed him or her as a Director; with a copy to his or her registered address. Where the Board has established a fixed time and place for the holding of its meetings, no notices of meetings to be held at such fixed time and place need be given to any Director. A Director entitled to notice of a meeting may waive or reduce the period of notice convening the meeting and may give such waiver before, during or after the meeting.

- 10.6 The quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the Directors shall be 50% of the Directors then in office.
- 10.7 The continuing Directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body but, notwithstanding Bylaw 10.8, if and so long as their number is reduced below the number fixed pursuant to these Bylaws as the necessary quorum of Directors, the continuing Directors may act for the purpose of summoning a general meeting of the Society, but for no other purpose.
- 10.8 Subject to the provisions of the Societies Act, all acts done by any meeting of the Directors or of a committee of Directors, or by any person acting as a Director, shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the qualification, election or appointment of any such Directors or of the members of such committee or person acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly elected or appointed and was qualified to be a Director.
- 10.9 A resolution consented to in writing, whether by document, telecopier, electronic mail, text message or any method of transmitting legibly recorded messages or other means, by all of the Directors without their meeting together shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Directors duly called and held, shall be deemed to relate back to any date stated therein to be the effective date thereof and shall be filed in the minute book of the Society accordingly. Any such resolution may consist of one or several documents each duly signed by one or more Directors.
