

Caregiver Support Worker (Usma F&CS)

The Nuu-chah-nulth Tribal Council (NTC) is seeking a dynamic and culturally grounded individual to serve as a Caregiver Support Worker with Usma Family and Child Services Resource Team. Based out of Port Alberni, this permanent, full-time position works directly with Usma caregivers to provide support to them in meeting the emotional, physical, spiritual and cultural needs of the Nuu-chah-nulth children in their care. Travel is an essential part of this position.

Position Responsibilities

- ◆ Meet with referring social worker to gather information about the caregiver and the children in their care to establish priorities for planning.
- ◆ Provide support and training to Usma caregivers regarding traditional Nuu-chah-nulth parenting practices, grief and loss and other needs as identified by the caregiver.
- ◆ Support recruitment of new caregivers with regular information sessions in community and by participating in community recruitment and appreciation events.
- ◆ Maintain sound and objective documentation and keep case files up to date.

Preferred Qualifications

- ◆ Possess a human services or social services diploma with demonstrated related working experience and related training.
- ◆ Well-developed professional knowledge of complex issues that affect children such as trauma, attachment, FASD and other neuro-developmental issues.
- ◆ Excellent working knowledge of MS Office, Internet, e-mail (Outlook).
- ◆ Possess networking skills to create strong community connection and understanding of the importance of working with First Nations protocols.
- ◆ Must have a vehicle, valid driver's licence, and able to work a variety of schedules as needed.
- ◆ Provide references and an acceptable criminal record check.

Competitive benefit package and salary based on qualifications and experience: salary range $60,000 - $70,000.
