

Harm Reduction Outreach Worker — Casual

The Nuu-chah-nulth Tribal Council's Teechuktl (Mental Health) Program is seeking a Casual Harm Reduction Outreach Worker to provide culturally based support to all Nuu-chah-nulth Region individuals, families, and communities, with an emphasis of providing support to First Nations people involved in high-risk lifestyles. This position will communicate with various service providers and coordinate activities to support wellness and healing within a culturally safe framework. This position will work evenings and weekends and provide outreach support to Nuu-chah-nulth clients away from home as well as in community. This position is based out of Port Alberni and will require travel to Nuu-chah-nulth territories along the coast of Vancouver Island (including by vehicle on gravel road, by boat, float plane and helicopter). This casual position operates on an as-needed basis within a 4-on, 3-off shift rotation. Daily scheduled hours are 9.75, including a one-hour meal break. As the program runs seven days a week, applicants must be flexible and available to work weekends. Shift assignments will vary depending on operational needs and are not guaranteed.

Responsibilities Include

- ◆ Establish relationships with persons at risk and provide outreach services directly to them as needed.
- ◆ Provide information about Drugs & Alcohol, Opioids, Harm Reduction and Services available.
- ◆ Work collaboratively with cross-sector service provider/partners in developing individualized and effective, strength-based, and culturally competent support plans.
- ◆ Have knowledge of Addiction services.
- ◆ Make referrals for urban individuals to appropriate resources.
- ◆ Provide ongoing support for treatment including follow up (i.e. reminders of appointments, transportation to pharmacies for medication).
- ◆ Develop and facilitate educational workshops and group discussions.

Preferred Qualifications

- ◆ Minimum Diploma required in Human Services or Addictions, plus 3-5 years of professional experience (ideally working with the at-risk population).
- ◆ Knowledge of trauma-informed service practice, complex and intergenerational trauma.
- ◆ Possessing a compassionate personality and ability to work under pressure is paramount.
- ◆ Effective organization and time management skills, computer literate in the workplace.
- ◆ Knowledge of Nuu-chah-nulth governance, culture, and traditions; or being a First Nations person will be considered an asset.
- ◆ Must have a vehicle and valid driver's licence.
- ◆ Provide acceptable references and criminal record check.
