PRESS STATEMENT

July 17, 2017

THE NUU-CHAH-NULTH TRIBAL COUNCIL IS PLEASED WITH THE GOVERNMENT OF CANADA'S COMMITMENT TO RECONCILIATION WITH THE INDUCTION OF TEN NEW PRINCIPLES

These Principles will serve as a catalyst for change with all Indigenous peoples of Canada

(Port Alberni, B.C.) The Nuuchahnulth Tribal Council (NTC) is pleased to learn of the Government of Canada's commitment to all Indigenous peoples in this country with the implementation of ten new principles that will support the federal government's mandate for reconciliation.

These Principles will keep Canada's Indigenous at the forefront of the decision making process and will guide the review of laws and policies at the federal level. More importantly, it will support revolutionary change of the individual rights and respect of all Indigenous peoples in Canada.

Nuuchahnulth citizens are optimistic of the renewed relationship between the federal government and our Indigenous peoples. Although the ten principles is a positive move in the right direction, there is still much work to be done. The NTC looks forward to more impactful developments in law, policy reform and relationships between the Government of Canada and all Indigenous communities in Canada.
